

Paladin Associates' Executive Partner Receives 2018 Provider Pros to Know Award

Supply and Demand Chain Executive Magazine names Donald J. Hoepfner, a Co-Founder and Executive Partner of Paladin Associates, Inc., as a 2018 Provider Pro to Know for outstanding industry achievements.

Atlanta, GA (PRWEB) April 17, 2018 -- Paladin Associates, Inc., a Strategic Sourcing and Procurement Services firm, is proud to announce that its Co-Founder and Executive Partner has again been named as a "2018 Provider Pro to Know" by Supply and Demand Chain Executive (SDCE) Magazine. Each year the industry publication, renowned for reporting on solutions and services that drive supply chain efficiency, releases its annual Provider Pros to Know list recognizing supply chain management leaders for their achievements advancing the supply operations of their clients.

Mid-market companies across various industries experience several key challenges including a lack of experienced Strategic Sourcing resources and specific spend category expertise. Paladin Associates provides clients with very experienced Subject Matter Experts in an 'on demand' basis who focus on creating competitive solutions and sourcing events that maximize the value clients receive from their suppliers.

In addition to over 30 years of GE global multi-functional leadership and a background in Finance and Strategic Sourcing, Hoepfner's expertise also includes Six Sigma Quality certification, productivity improvements, cost reductions, Distribution Operations, Facilities Management, Business Development, and Acquisition Integration.

As Executive Partner, Hoepfner's leadership has enabled Paladin's Procurement Professionals to deliver significant benefits that favorably impacted Clients' operating results and improved sourcing, procurement, and logistics practices and procedures, which increased cash flow, profitability and shareholder value
